

Embracing the Culturally Diverse: Understanding and providing ethically sound approaches in clinical practice

Presented by:

Latasha Matthews, LPC, CPCS, CPLC, CAMS
Illumination Counseling & Coaching, LLC.

Biases and barriers exist in access to client care which impacts the clients' ability to heal. This course will highlight the importance of cultural humility and the ethical role clinicians hold in providing compassionate care.

This webinar is designed to help you take an introspective look at yourself while providing ethically sound services to protect/benefit both you and your clients/supervisee's.

Learning Objectives:

- Participants will explore how personal values impact their work with clients
- Participants will gain and understanding of cultural humility
- Participants will analyze treatment modalities to ensure goodness of fit when working with diverse clients

About the Presenter:

Latasha Matthews is known as America's Emotional Wellness Expert, she is Co-founder of Pieces That Fit, Inc. and the CEO and Clinical Director of Illumination Counseling and Coaching, LLC Latasha is well versed in providing individual, couples, adolescent and family therapy in her Group Practice in Lawrenceville, GA. With over 15 years' experience as a Licensed Professional Counselor, Life Coach, Speaker, and author, she utilizes a Family Systems approach, which considers how a particular system impacts an individual person, organization, or situation. In addition to Latasha's clinical experience, she also provides continuing education for clinicians and holds the position of adjunct professor at several universities. Latasha is an advocate for emotional wellness and balance. Latasha is the author of The Dumping Ground. Which was on the Bestseller's list in 2016. She has trained 1000's of individuals globally on the importance of setting healthy boundaries. Latasha has received numerous awards, written numerous article publications and has been awarded countless speaking opportunities for her advocacy work supporting healthy boundaries.

Date, Time & Location

Friday, March 26, 2021
9:00am - 12:15pm

VIRTUAL / WEBINAR

Webinar details will be provided following registration

Cost and Registration: $75 per registrant.

Please register at:

www.anchorhospital.com/register-for-ce-class/

Email Sheneka.Winston@uhsinc.com with any CE event-related questions.

Continuing Education Credit

Applications have been made for (3) Ethics professional education hours in accordance with the guidelines established by Licensed Professional Counselors Association of Georgia (LPCA-GA) and Georgia Society of Clinical Social Work (GSCSW). Licensed Marriage & Family Therapists (LMFTs) and other disciplines may use the course for related hours.

*Attendees who arrive 20 minutes late or leave early will not receive CE credit or a certificate according to the rules stated by the Georgia Composite Board.